

Chinese Culture Summer Program

上海外国语大学 中国文化暑期项目

General FAQs

Q1: What courses do the program offer? Can I get a certificate and official transcript after participating in this program?

The 2023 SISU Chinese Culture Summer Program offers sessions on the following 5 themes related to Chinese culture: Chinese History, Politics and Law, Art, Economy and Literature, each theme consisting of 2-4 lectures and 1 seminar. Besides, one week Chinese course is included in the program, and it is possible to upgrade the Chinese course to 2 weeks with extra tuition fee of 600 RMB. Each lecture/seminar is 1.5 hours. Students will receive an official certificate and official transcript upon the completion of all the coursework and assessment.

Q2: Do I need to speak Chinese to participate in the summer program?

The Program is all-English and thus has no requirement on the Chinese proficiency of applicants.

Q3: What grade level is the program target? Are there any restrictions or requirements on the majors of the students enrolled in the program?

The program is open to applicants of any academic background. We welcome students of undergraduate, master's and doctoral levels to apply for this program.

Q4: Is on-campus accommodation offered to the program students?

We provide on-campus accommodation (SISU Guesthouse) to all the program students. SISU Guesthouse is an 18-storey building, built in 2000 and refurbished in 2011, located on campus, with facilities such as a cafeteria, a grocery, a beauty parlor, and an ATM. Both twin rooms and single rooms are available. Each room is equipped with central air-conditioning, a private bathroom, a telephone, a TV set, internet access, etc. There's a communal use kitchen on each floor, with a washing machine, a fridge and a microwave oven.

Address: No.189 West Tiyuhui Road, Hongkou District, Shanghai 200083 (上海市虹口区西体育会路 189 号, Tel: 086-21-3505 0730).

When you check in, together with the total of your room fares, you are required to pay a refundable deposit of 500 RMB. Please keep the receipt for refund upon checking out. The Guesthouse does not provide toiletries like a youth hostel.

The phone in your room can receive calls only.

The key card for the hotel room should be inserted in the wall slot for power. Please remember to take the card with you whenever you leave the room.

You can buy bottled water either from the hotel or from shops on campus.

You can buy a rechargeable laundry card at the front desk to use the laundry machine in SISU Guesthouse.
